

A photograph of a sailboat on a body of water. A person is standing on the deck, reaching up towards the mast. The sky is filled with dramatic, golden-hued clouds, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The water reflects the light from the sky. In the background, there are dark silhouettes of trees and a small building on the shore.

The “dugnad” spirit

- There is only one way our sailing club can exist
- The members have to help out
 - Something always breaks
 - The boats need to be painted
 - We always want to make them better
- 300kr refund on the membership fee

- Dugnads are announced in the facebook group and the sailing calendar
- Are sometimes combined with barbeques or drinks after
- Can be bigger projects like taking up and painting boats, but also smaller like replacing equipment
- An extra pair of hands is always a great addition, whatever their skill level
- We have good knowledge of electrics, engines, and fiberglass, so it's an excellent way to learning new skills

RAN weekend Bi-annual sailing/cabin-trip

And there is always something fun going on

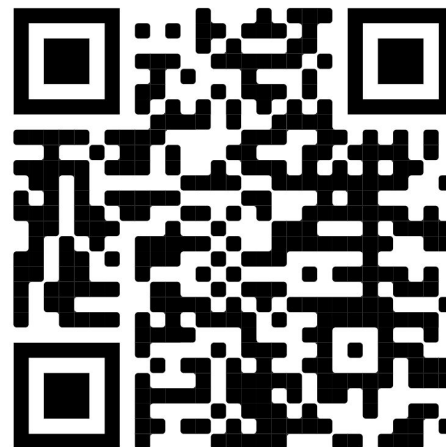

Sailing sessions

Signing up to sailings through the sailing calendar.

- The sailings are posted in the calendar in the beginning of each month. More sailings might pop up over time.
- Spontaneous sailings get announced in the Facebook group

- Only sign up to one sailing at the time (unless there is available spots 2h before a sailing start)
- All start times are definite, be in time. Ending time is estimated and can vary, so don't make plans for right after the sailing.
- Cancellation through the calendar up till 5h before the sailing. (call your skipper if you cannot go after that, or you're running late).
- We will be signing up to beginner sailings at the end of today's course.

What do you need to bring?

It's usually colder out on the fjord than in the city center. Bring an extra pullover. It is hard to put on clothes you forgot to bring along...

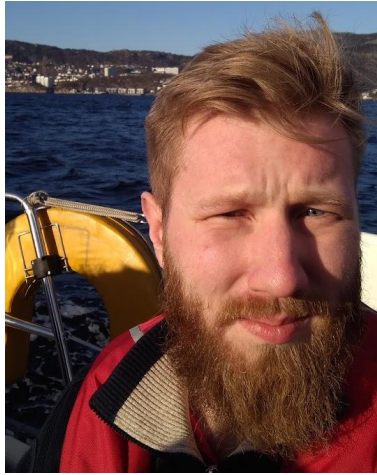

Bring a hat. Most body heat is lost through your head

If it's raining: rain gear, woolen clothes and socks, rubber boots

If it's sunny: sunglasses, a cap, swimsuit

Water, a hot drink and snacks (bring snacks for the skipper too)
